TWO PEGS HOME CHECK BENDERS

Nip Fisher and Donnelly at Plate and Break Up Local's Big Rally.

By Ed J. Murray.

Two perfect pegs home and a home run with a man on the paths turned the tide in favor of Terre Haute and the locals dropped the lead of the previous yesterday afternoon by a count of 4 to 2.

Those perfect pegs came in the fourth inning, when the first man up walked and the next three hit singles. Fisher and Donnelly tried to count and both were caught at the plate. The locals were "making 'em throw 'em," but had tough luck, for both pegs bounded right right to make the outcasts eat work.

The home run came in the eighth frame, with the count knotted. Miller got a single on a drive that Koehler managed to knock down after one man had died. Wagner then came up and lifted the ball over the right field wall and the Benders were a couple of runs behind.

Pitchers Work Good. McCall and Schettler both pitched good games, but errors figured in one of the runs scored by each club. McCall was steadier, but Schettler was helped out by two double plays that nipped men off the paths.

Mitchell, second up, walked and stole second in the first, but died there. In the second, with two dead, Baumgartner with two gone, singled past first, but died stealing. Evers opened the third with a hit through the hurler's residence, and was sent to second on Schettler's sacrifice. O'Day hit to right center and both Bashang and Grimes had chances to grab the ball, but they feared a collision and the ball dropped after landing in Grimes' hands.

The two men moved up a peg. Mitchell dropped a bunt in front of the ball wasn't returned at first, but the ball was returned fast enough to get Evers. Gygil ended it by popping out to Koehler.

Benders Tossed Out. The locals got one man on in the second and Bashang doubled in the third, but failed to count until the fourth. Fisher opened with a walk and Koehler got a hit on a drive to Mitchell. Donnelly drove to left field and Fisher tried to score, but La Ross beat him home with the ball. Ben and Don moved up to third and second. Tannehill sent one over the second bag and Ben scored, but Donnelly was nipped on Miller's throw home. Grodick ended the inning by flying out to Miller.

Miller, first up in the fourth, was forced at second. Schettler in the fifth got a hit with one down, but was forced by O'Day. The right fielder stole second, Grodick failing to cover. Mitchell went out on a fly to Fisher. The Highlanders failed to get a man on the paths in the sixth.

Bashang walked in the fifth, but got no farther. With one gone in the sixth, Koehler hit to Baumgartner and took second on the over-throw to first. Donnelly's double to left scored Ben. Tannehill hit one that Evers managed to knock down. Grodick drove to Mitchell and Tannehill and Joe were doubled. In the seventh McCall hit through the infield and Bashang walked. Grimes flew out to La Ross and Fisher fanned.

Terriers Tie Score. Terre Haute tied the count in the eighth.

BROWNSON KEEPS STUDEBAKER CUP

Take Interhall Meet With 52 1/2 Points, While Corby Is Next With 45 1/2.

Brownson	52 1/2
Corby	45 1/2
Sorin	16 1/2
Day Students	14
Walsh	12 1/2
St. Joe	7

Brownson hall retains possession of the Studebaker trophy for another year as a result of its victory in the annual outdoor interhall track and field meet at Notre Dame yesterday. After one of the hardest and closest interhall battles in the history of the university, the main building named out Corby by the bare margin of 6 1/2 points.

See-Saw Battle.

It was a see-saw battle throughout with Corby gaining a slight lead toward the end of the meet. With but two events remaining on the program, the broad jump and the relay, the maroons were 5 1/2 points ahead of their opponents. Brownson, however, took first and second places in the broad jump, while the best Corby could do was to secure a fourth. The result of the meet depended on the relay. Despite a poor start, Barry, the first runner for Brownson, passed King of Corby, and the winners held the lead until the end of the race.

Three new records were made in yesterday's meet. Casper of Walsh bested Andy McDonough's old interhall mark of 2:09.4-5 in the half mile by trotting the distance in 2:06.3-5, and Ward Miller of Corby shattered the old shotput mark by heaving the weight 38 feet, 4 inches. Fitzgerald held the former record of 37 feet, 6 inches. Meehan won the quarter in 52.4-5 seconds, beating Henahan's old record of 54 seconds.

Summary.

100-yard dash—Won by Mulligan, Brownson; Burke, Brownson, second; Keenan, Corby, third; O'Neill, Walsh, fourth. Time—10 3-5 seconds.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Scheiblehut, Day Students; Allison, Brownson, second; Clerkin, Brownson, third; Sugrue, Brownson, fourth. Time—18 3-5 seconds.

FROST HOLDS REDS TO TWO HITS AND WINS 2-0

Dayton Hurler in Great Form; Both Teams Put Up Classy Fielding Despite Cold.

MUSKEGON, Mich., May 18.—Pitcher Frost was in rare form Wednesday, holding the Reds to two scattered hits and easily winning his game 2 to 0. Despite the fact that the weather was just a few points above the freezing point, both teams put up one of the classic articles of ball seen here this season.

BLACK SOX HAMMER TWO STOGIE HURLERS

Every Man Gets Hit, Duncan Poling Two Doubles and Triples—Score 11 to 3.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 18.—Clouting the offerings of the two Wheeling pitchers for 13 safeties, Grand Rapids took the second game of the Wheeling series Wednesday by the top heavy score of 11 to 3. Duncan had another field day, his second of the season. The local outfielder got two doubles and a triple, which sent five runs over, and he scored twice himself. Every member of the Sox team hit safely at least once. Goshorn was never in danger after the first inning, an error which gave King a life at first paying the way to the only run made off him during the final eight turns of the Stoges at bat.
